Course Description:

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who apply knowledge, practical skills and experience in leadership and management across a range of enterprise and industry contexts.

Individuals at this level display initiative and judgement in planning, organising, implementing and monitoring their own workload and the workload of others. They use communication skills to support individuals and teams to meet organisational or enterprise requirements.

They plan, design, apply and evaluate solutions to unpredictable problems, and identify, analyse and synthesise information from a variety of sources.

To gain the BSB51915 - Diploma of Leadership and Management a successful assessment outcome for the following 12 units must be achieved

Course Duration:

The course duration is 52 Weeks full time, with a requirement to attend our facility for training for a minimum of 24 hours per week x 40 weeks, with 12 weeks of term/Semester break. The course is delivered over 960 hours of classroom activity and 140 hours of unsupervised learning/own time studies.

Volume of Learning:

For the student to complete all their learning they will have to also spend time outside the formal scheduled activities. "Graduates at this level (AQF 5) will apply knowledge and skills to demonstrate autonomy, judgement and defined knowledge responsibility in known or changing contexts and within broad but established parameters (AQF 2nd Edition, p38). To reach that level, their volume of learning is typically more than double the timetabled hours. In the extra hours a student is expected to allocate time to self-study by way of research, review of existing cases, and multiple sources of information or real live example and subsequently prepare formal summative assessment material and any other activities to cover the breath of the course. Some of the time may be "on the job" whilst others will be by self-directed learning.
